

Call for Papers

Presidency University Journal

ISSN: 2224-7610

Welcome to Volume 4, No.1, and Part: A. The Presidency University Journal's current issue will consist of article on Business, Social Science, English and Economics. These research-based articles will be disseminating information for existence and overcome in this turbulent society. In this edition total numbers of published articles will be within ten. Both quantitative and qualitative research papers will be accepted.

It covers the areas of Business, Economics, English and social science such as management, marketing, finance, economics, banking, Information Technology in business, accounting, human resources management, international business, hotel and tourism, entrepreneurship development, business ethics, international relations, law, development studies, population studies, political science, Bangladesh and global economy, history, journalism and mass communication, corporate governance, cross-cultural studies, public administration, psychology, philosophy, sociology, women studies, religious studies, social welfare, anthropology, linguistics, education, student affairs and so on.

The Volume will be published on February, 2024 and the hardcopies will be distributed to the authors, researchers, educational institutions and research centers. Also the journal's online visibility will be confirmed through Google Scholar Indexing. We hope that the journal will be one of the best choices for researchers, academicians, entrepreneurs, business magnets, policy makers and social thinkers. All the manuscript accepted here for publication will go through blind reviewing by two anonymous referees. Those who are involved in the process of contribution and publication of the journal, we want to thank them.

For any kind of query, please contact to : zohar@pu.edu.bd

Warm regards,

Zoha Rahman, PhD
Assistant Professor
And Editor, Presidency University Journal